Texas Future Project: Listening Deeply to Texas Voters

Round 1 Findings

Strategic Goal

Understand the emotional landscape and predominant narratives experienced and shared by Texans around progressive political and social issues, particularly for key regions of the state.

Research Goals

- Identify what issues are most pressing and why amongst various demographic and geographic groups throughout Texas
- Establish a baseline of attitudes and emotional associations that are shaping various segments of the population, to track through each round of research
- Develop a deep understanding of key psychological drivers, emotions, and values shaping the attitudes of Texas voters through the midterm election

Sample

- n=8,354
- Texas registered voters

Methodology

- Fielded August 19 to 26, 2022
- Online survey with typed responses
- Combination of open and closed questions

Understanding Avalanche's Qualitative Data

Avalanche Insights instruments combine closed-ended and open-ended questions, using proprietary in-house tech to code and quantify themes in open-ended responses.

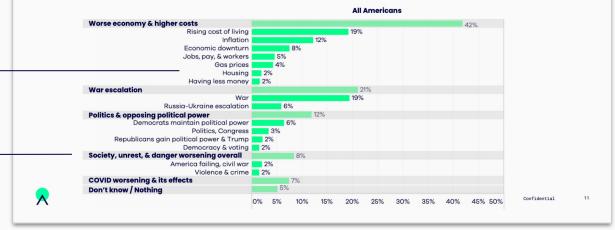

Question text indicates whether question was asked in open or closed format.

Qualitative themes, which summarize similar responses, are quantified as a percentage of a given audience. Responses can be coded into more than one theme.

Higher-level categories, indicated • by gray headings, group together similar themes to shed light on summary insights from the data.

Americans' top fears for the next year relate to the economy – most frequently, to rising costs and inflation.

[Fear for America] What do you most fear will happen in America in the next year that would make things harder for people like you? (Open)

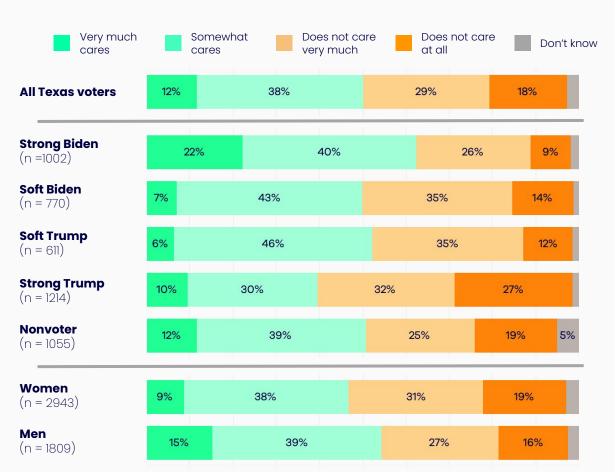

What are Texas voters' perceptions of government and representation?

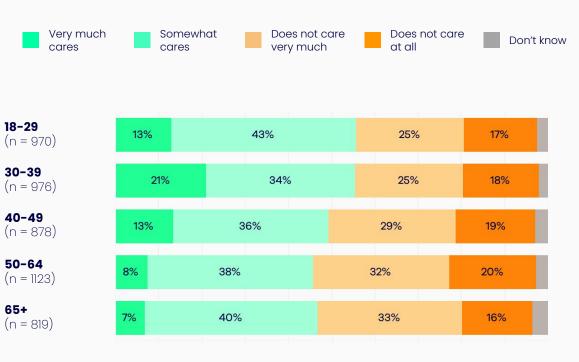

Only half of voters say the government cares about their community and people like them.

Strong Biden voters are more likely to say so than other vote choice groups. Men are more likely to say so than women. [Govt Cares] How much do you think the government cares about your community and people like you? (Close-ended)

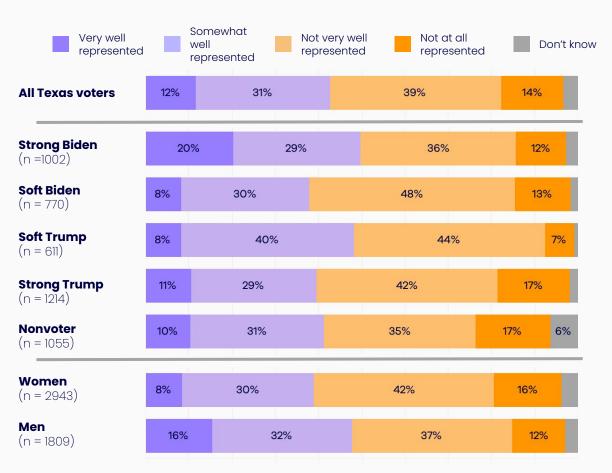

Younger voters are more likely to believe that the government at least somewhat cares about their communities [Govt Cares] How much do you think the government cares about your community and people like you? (Close-ended)

A majority of Texas voters say they do not feel well represented in government.

Strong Biden and men voters are more likely to say they feel well-represented than other groups. [Representation] How well do you feel that your community and people like you are represented in government? (Close-ended)

What values and challenges do Texas voters feel are most important?

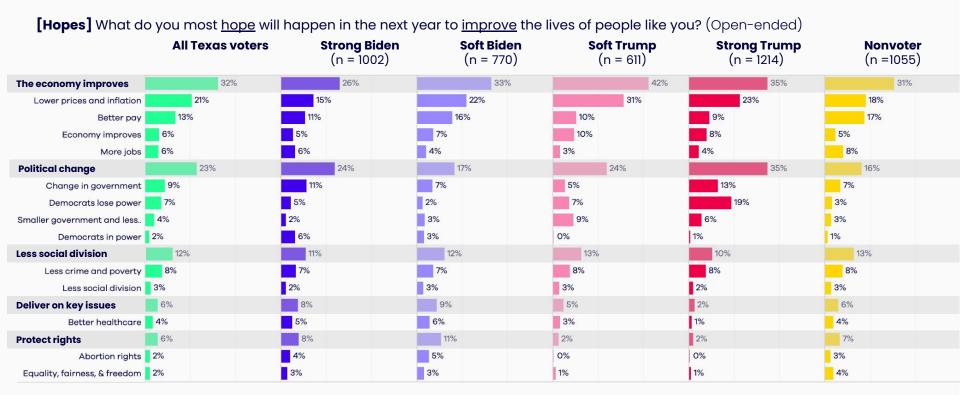

Family and honesty were top values for all Texan vote choice groups. Biden and Trump voters diverge on the third top value: equality vs. freedom, respectively.

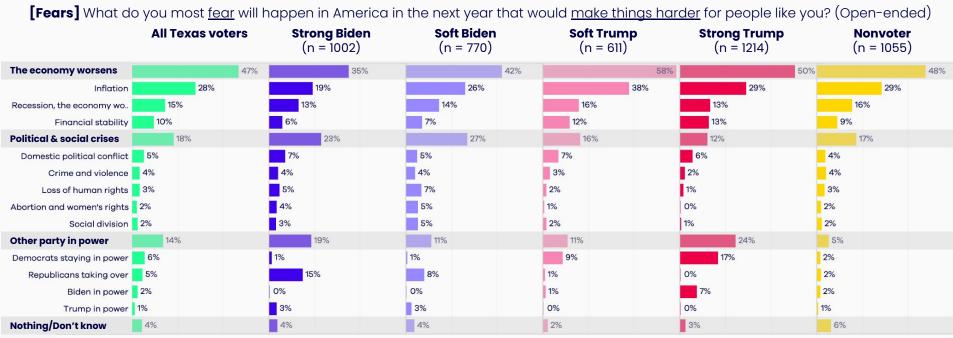

[Values] Which of the following values are most important to you? Select up to three. (Close-ended)

A plurality (1 in 3) of Texas voters say they hope the economy improves, with lower prices top of mind. Strong Biden and Trump voters as just as likely to say political change.

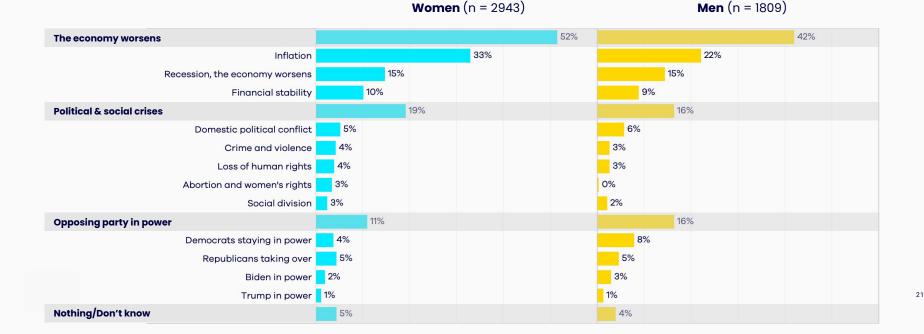

The most common fear for all vote choice groups is 'the economy worsening' (specifically rising prices). Biden voters show more concern for 'political & social crises.'

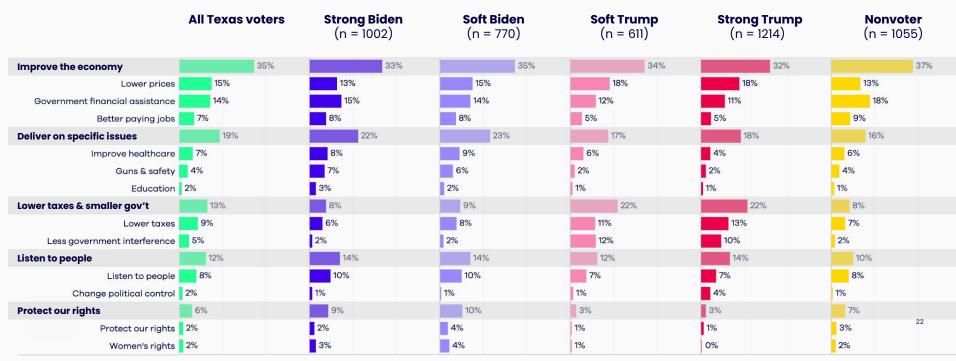

Women are more likely to cite economic fears than men. Men are more likely to cite opposing political party control as a fear.

[Fears] What do you most fear will happen in America in the next year that would make things harder for people like you? (Open-ended)

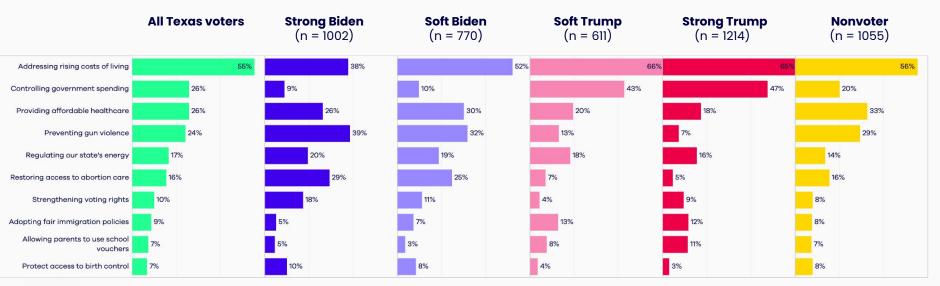

'Improving the economy' is the most common wish Texas voters say would improve the lives of people like them.

[Issue Priority] What is one thing you most wish the government would do to improve the lives of people like you? (Open-ended)

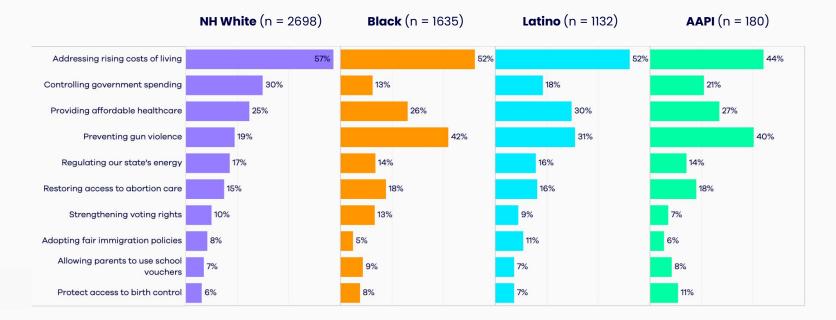

When given a specific list of priorities, more than half of Texas voters chose addressing rising costs. Other priorities tend to fall along vote choice.

[Elected Issue Priority] Which of the following do you think should be among the top priorities for elected officials this year? Please select your top two. (Close-ended)

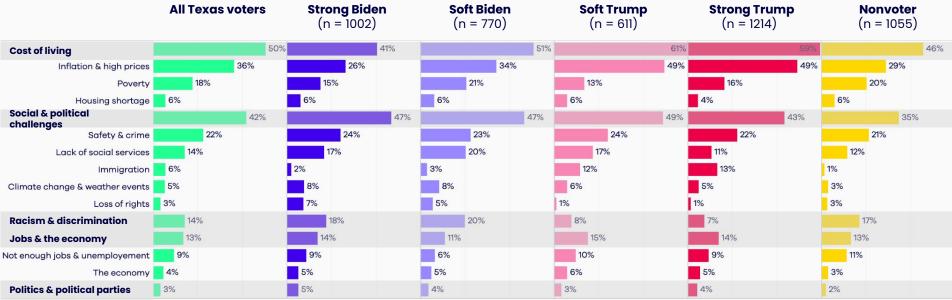

Gun violence prevention is the number two priority for Black, AAPI, and Latino voters, followed by affordable healthcare.

[Elected Issue Priority] Which of the following do you think should be among the top priorities for elected officials this year? Please select your top two. (Close-ended)

After 'rising prices,' Texas voters cite several challenges, including 'safety & crime,' 'poverty,' 'racism & discrimination,' and 'lack of social services.'

[Barriers] In your opinion, what are 2-3 of the biggest challenges your community faces? (Open-ended)

In their own words: Barriers

Cost of living (50%)

"Rising prices, hunger, lack of affordable housing."

- Woman, White, 65+, College, Strong Trump

"Inflation, jobs not paying a decent wage to live off of, and the housing market."

- Woman, Hispanic, 30-39, Non college, Soft Trump

"Rising prices of food, unattainable housing costs, absurd healthcare costs."

- Man, White, 40-49, College, Soft Biden

"Our community faces high taxes, unregulated building, and foreign entities buying up land and properties causing a jump in prices."

- Woman, Black, 30-39, Non college, Strong Biden Social & political challenges (42%)

"Lack of competent leadership, no political establishment and no one to stand up against violence."

- Man, White, 18-29, Non college, Strong Trump

"My little community faces growth pains: poor streets and roads, lack of parks for children, heavy traffic areas."

- Woman, White, 65+, Non college, Soft Trump

"Discrimination, criminalization, lack of access to resources (education, health, job training etc)."

- Woman, Black, 30-39, Non college, Soft Biden

"School system needs money and teachers, cost of living is increasing too rapidly."

- Woman, AAPI, 40-49, College, Strong Biden

Racism, discrimination, and social division (14%)

"My community faces racial profiling, police harassment, and hate crimes."

- Man, Chicano, 30-39, Non college, Strong Trump

"Racism, discrimination and bias."

- Man, Black, 18-39, College, Soft Trump

"Police brutality, racially discriminated, and racially profiled."

- Woman, Hispanic, 18-39, College, Soft Biden

"The biggest challenges are division, prejudice, and opinions."

- Woman, AAPI, 30-39, College, Soft Biden

"Racism, women's rights, LGTBQ+ discrimination."

- Woman, White, 18-29, College, Strong Biden

Who do Texas voters view as heroes and villains?

A clear plurality of Texas voters agree that the opposing party is the main barrier to addressing challenges. Soft Biden groups are most likely to cite 'the rich & powerful.'

[Prevents] Which individuals or groups do you think are standing in the way of addressing these challenges? (Open-ended)

Clear pluralities of vote choice groups say their own party does the most to help address challenges.

[Helps] Which individuals or groups do you think do the most to help address these challenges? (Open-ended)

What are Texas voters' perceptions of the political parties?

Almost a quarter of Texas voters are unsure which party is more likely to improve their lives.

Women voters are split evenly, though more than a quarter are unsure. [Hero Party] Which of the following is closest to your view? (Closed)

- Man, Tejano, 40-49, Non college, Soft Trump

"Just looking at history. They've passed a lot of bills that are inline with my views."

- Woman, Black, 18-29, Non college, Soft Biden

They want to protect rights, freedoms, and lives (11%)

"Because they care more about protecting our rights rather than taking them away."

- Women, 18-29, Tejano, College, Soft Trump

"They seem to be more concerned with the importance of vaccines and stricter laws on gun control."

- Woman, White, 50-64, College, Soft Trump

"They fight for our voting rights, gun control, abortion rights, reduce taxes for the middle class and not just the rich."

- Woman, AAPI, 65+, College, Soft Biden

"They believe in people's freedom more than Republicans do."

- Man, Black, 30-39, College, Soft Biden

Those who say they believe Republicans are more likely to improve their lives cite Republicans' values and economic policy.

[Hero Party Why GOP] You previously said that Republicans are more likely to improve the lives of Texans. Why, specifically, do you believe that? (Open-ended)

In their own words: Hero Party Why - Republicans

I align with their conservative values (23%)

"Republicans tend to have a more conservative stance for improving the lives of Texans."

- Woman, Black, 65+, College, Soft Trump

"I feel they are less extreme and have traditional values."

- Man, White, 50-64, College, Soft Trump

- Man, Hispanic, 40-49, Non college, Soft Trump

"Republicans are more conservative and want to protect their own. Republicans want to keep work, jobs, and money at home." - Woman, Black, 30-39, Non college, Soft Biden Good with the economy and will lower costs (18%)

"Because they more concerned with making the economy better."

- Woman, Black, 40-49, Non college, Soft Trump

"They are providing jobs therefore more opportunities of employment."

- Woman, Hispanic, 18-29, College, Soft Trump

"Republicans spend less money and so the prices of things and the stock market readjust for the better."

- Man, Hispanic, 30-39, College, Soft Biden

"Cause republicans are always trying to create jobs so a good paying job will improve your life."

- Man, 50-64, White, College, Soft Biden

They care about the people & America (15%)

"Despite the yammerings of the media, Republicans care more about people and state's rights than Democrats."

- Man, White, 65+, Non college, Soft Trump
- "They care about the citizens."
- Man, Black, 18-29, Non college, Soft Trump

"They more trustworthy."

- Woman, White, 40-49, College, Soft Trump

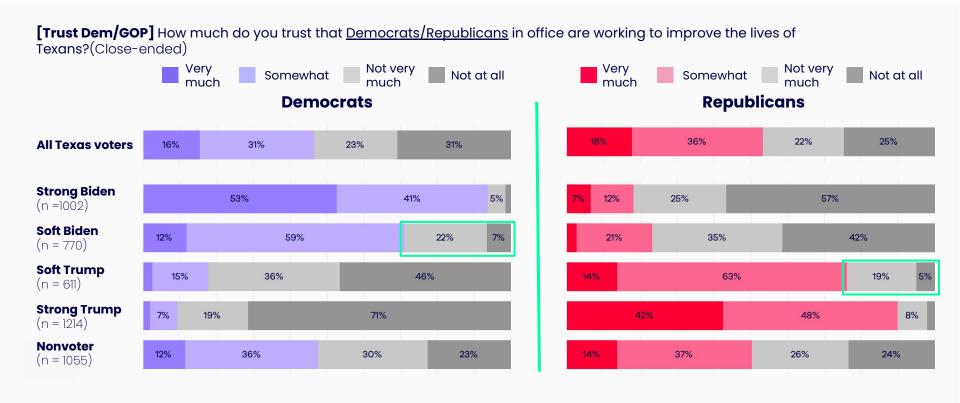

"Because they know what us Texans want."

- Man, 18-29, Hispanic, College, Soft Biden

"For the most part they put the American people's interest first."

- Woman, Black, 50-64, College, Soft Biden

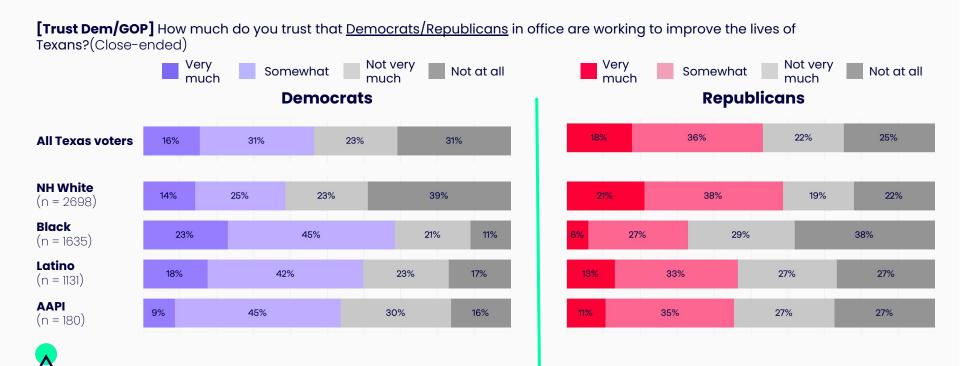

Soft Biden voters are slightly more distrustful of their own party compared to Soft Trump voters.

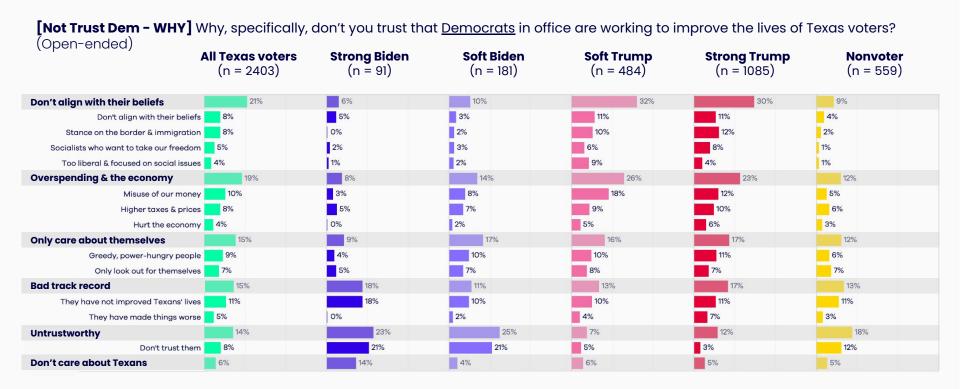

Younger Texas voters tend to trust Democrats more compared to older Texas voters, however this trust is mostly tentative. Distrust correlates with older age.

Voters of color trust Democrats more compared to NH White voters, although most of this trust is tentative.

Biden voters who say they don't trust Democrats view their own party as untrustworthy. Trump voters are more likely to cite opposing beliefs and Democrats' spending.

In their own words: Don't trust Democrats because...

Don't align with their beliefs

"They seem to only care about 'wokeness' for votes and that doesn't represent a majority of the population"

"Because they want to open our borders and give benefits to people that have never worked a day in our country" – Woman, 65+, White, Some college, Strong Trump

"They are too worried about abortion & certain social issues" – Woman, 40-49, Mexican American, Some college, Strong Biden

Overspending & the economy

"They are horrible with money and prioritize minorities and people other than who they were elected to serve." - Man, 18-29, Mexican American, Some college, Strong Trump

"Democrats want the govt to solve everything and spend other peoples money"

– Man, 40-49, Black, Some college, Soft Trump

"They never do anything to help Americans, they only raise taxes and want more control of our lives" - Woman, 65+, White, Non college, Strong Trump

Only care about themselves

"They're just going to increase our taxes. They don't care about anyone but themselves."

- Woman, 18-29, White, College, Soft Biden

"They don't listen or look out for people that live in Texas. They appear to care more about image than what's really going on." – Woman, 30-39, Black, Some college, Soft Trump

"Dems vote on emotional, subjective issues which change according to their agenda."

– Man, 30-39, White, Some college, Other
